Sedro-Woolley Loggerodeo Grand Parade Application

Annual Fourth of July Grand Parade Presented by the Sedro-Woolley Lions Club

Please Read

Nephi, Utah, July 17, 2017 (Gephardt Daily)

When 11 yr old Grace Eyre suffered fatal injuries Friday during a parade, she had just jumped off the back of a pickup truck to distribute candy to spectators. The Nephi girl lost her footing and fell under the flatbed trailer the truck was pulling. Spectators hurried to offer aid, but the crushing injuries would cost Grace her life.

KATC-TV

Reports that witnesses say a child was struck by a vehicle pulling the float after entering the roadway for a piece of candy. KATC says the parade was stopped after the child was hit, and then detoured.

These are incidents we take precautions to prevent by following all the rules set forth in this application.

SAFETY AGREEMENT

For the safety of everyone, THROWING ANYTHING from your entry or from the street to the people is prohibited. This includes candy, toys, advertising materials, water products or shooting water guns, etc.

Your signature indicates that you agree not to throw anything and that you will inform all members of your entry regarding this.
